The Daily Courant.

Monday, March 11. 1723.

London, March 11.
Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

Lisbon, February 9.

THE 2d Instant being Candlemas Day, the King assisted at the Celebration of High Mass, and in the Afternoon his Majesty, accompanied by the Infantes Don Francisco and Don Antonio, his Brothers, and principal Nobility of the Court, attended with a Train of 24 Coaches, went to the Convent of Nuns at Odivellas, where the Te Deum was sung. Some Dutch Sailors were committed to Prison a few Days past for clandestine Conveyance of Tobacco; but at the Intercession of the States General's Resident, 'tis not doubted but they will speedily be released.

Ceuta, Feb. 12. The Moors not daring to shew themselves openly by reason of the great Fire from this Place, they carry on their Approaches by the Sap; the Spaniards on their Part work at the exterior Fortifications, and from time to time make Sallies upon the Enemy: They sallied out Yesterday to the Number of 400 Grenadiers, and another like Body of Infantry, and 200 Pioneers, commanded by Don Paul de Cabayudo, Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Spain, Don Mathew de Prado a Lieutenant Colonel, and Don John de Monsalona Commanding Officer of the second Battalion of Leon; when the Spanish Troops had received the Enemies first Fire, all the Detachments that were posted at different Places gave them upon the Moors, and put them to flight, after which they levelled their new Parallel of 700 Foot, the Head of the Line de la Roche, and some other Works; but the Commanding Officers apprehending least during the obscurity of the Night, the Infidels would attack them with their main Body, which lay not far off, they beat the Retreat, and came back to this Garrison, without other loss than two Men killed and seven wounded.

Madrid, March 2. The King having granted the Dignity of a Grandee of this Kingdom to the Chevalier d'Orleans Grand Prior of France, he covered himself according to the usual Ceremony for the first Time on the 28th past before his Majesty, and gave a great Entertainment in the Evening to all the Nobility who had assisted at that Ceremony.

Stockholm, Feb. 20. The Assembly of the Burghers has agreed with those of the Nobility and Clergy, in a Resolution not to make any Alteration in the present established Form of the Government of this Kingdom. Which Resolution has been signified to the Peasants, who having judged some Alteration necessary, had desired the Concurrence of their other States.

Paris, March 17. The Duke of Bourbon has given the Castle of Lezeau to the Count de Charolois, and the Country Seat of Vesroux to the Count de Clermont. The Detachment of the Guards du Corps, and the King's Houshold Officers, that conducted Mademoiselle de Beaujolois to the Frontiers of Spain, are returned to this City. The Protestants having assembled lately to the Number of 1000 or 1200, to perform their Devotions in a Wood near Montauban, the Intendant of the Province has received Order to prevent such like Meetings for the future. The new Regulation for the India Company was expected to be made publick the 15th Instant, and on the 14th the Actions rose to 1500 Livres; but soon appearing they are since fallen to 1400. The Liquidations are at 30.

Hague, March 16. The Marquess de Monteleone the Spanish Ambassadour, had a Conference Yesterday with the Deputies of the States General, when he acquainted them by Order from his Court, that a Squadron of Ships to be commanded by the Marquess de Mari is fitting out at Cadiz, to act this Summer against the Algerines in Conjunction with the Squadron which this State shall think fit to send into the Mediterranean, and which he desired might be ordered thither with all possible Dispatch. The Deputies of the Admiralties being now here to be consulted about fitting out of the said Squadron, it is expected a final Resolution upon that Affair will be taken in a few Days. Eight Deputies from Zealand are arrived here to confer with the States of Holland about their Maritime Affairs and the Farming of the Customs, in order to which they presented Yesterday to the Assembly their Powers or Credentials. Letters from Moscow relate, that Baron Schaffiroff, Chancellour to the Czar, had by his Order been taken into Custody, and all his Papers and Effects secured, and that since his Confinement he had charged Prince Menzikoff and Admiral Apraxin with the same Crimes he is accused of.

Spanish-Town in Jamaica, Dec. 26. His Grace the Duke of Portland, with his Retinue, arrived safe here on the 22d Instant; and was received with all Demonstrations of publick Joy.
